

My final thoughts on this situation:

- Why wouldn't the board be forthcoming and transparent on these transactions?
- Why were deliberate implications made which had no bearing on my initial question?
- Why were my intentions questioned?
- Why did a board member lie on multiple occasions?

This whole situation could have been avoided if the Board had been transparent. A simple reply of "We discussed and approved Holiday bonuses" would have ended the conversation. Instead, we had deceit and lies which led to contentious meetings. There is a total lack of leadership. Residents which speak in opposition of the Board are often interrupted and held to strict time limits while sycophants of the Board are NEVER interrupted and receive more than the allotted time.
